“Why Wait?”

Presenter: Rob Quillen, An Award-Winning, Inspirational Author & Public Speaker

We all have a very powerful ability inside of us that we hardly use on a daily basis. This hidden ability can change lives forever. Not only yours, but everyone around you. Rob's incredible messages behind both of his books, Why Wait? and Here is a picture of me Naked and I don't care what you think about it, will impact your life in a very positive way. Every one of us has certain events that take place in our lives that shape or define who we are. Sometimes the events that take place change our lives in a positive way; sometimes the events that take place impact us negatively. In Rob's first book, Why Wait?, he takes his personal 9.11 experience to tell the story about making dreams come true for others. Rob's books, speeches, and messages are incredibly powerful and they will change your life forever.

This program meets the criteria of the approved continuing education for Social Work, Mental Health Practitioners and Marriage and Family Therapists for 1 CEU hour.
